KAT

Scientists have shown that there have been a rise of cats appearing,
those who own one are in great danger.

Kat seems to have a coughing fit during the whole recording.

KAT

Scientists have found that to combat the invasion they have invented 'catnip'.

Two SCIENTISTS comes onto the screen.

SCIENTIST 2

Hey there! Here is some catnip as a preventative measure. Enjoy!

The scientist drops off the item before running away. May closes the door behind her while carrying the catnip. She walks upstairs to her bedroom.

4 INT. BEDROOM - DAY

May is sitting on her bed, pondering.

MAY

Will this really keep me and Oreo safe from the invasion?

CREAK

She looks over to her opened door to her cat, OREO. Glancing at the catnip in her hand to her cat.

MAY

No point wondering, time to test it out.

May sprinkles some onto the floor and Oreo eats it.

KAT

(whispering)
How is the plan going Miss Oreo? Is the servant to your liking?

OREO
Yes, she is adequate enough to be my servant. Thanks to you, BOB, and TOM'S help I can live peacefully.

Kat nods her head, standing up to walk away. Showing a set of cat ears on her head, as the door closes behind her.

THE END.
